

Mathetes (the Greek word for 'disciple') is a new program at Evangelical Baptist Church. Mathetes will be an on-going series of college level courses that will run on Sunday evenings for eight to ten weeks. These courses will be intensive and require some study and preparation.

MATHETES FAQ

Who Should Come? : If you have always wanted to study the Bible in a deeper way that would not be possible during Sunday school or a small group, Mathetes might be for you. If you like your faith challenged and want to push beyond easy believism then you may want to try a course or two.

What is Involved? : The requirements for each course differ. You should check the syllabi for each course to ascertain what is required for that particular course. In general each course will require some outside reading and study. You will be required to attend each class and take the examinations or write a paper or two.

What Does it Cost? : The courses are free but you will be asked to pay for the textbooks needed.

What Courses are Offered? : Syllabi will be posted in the foyer. We plan on offering the following courses in the next few years depending on attendance.

- Systematic Theology I
- Systematic Theology II
- Survey of the Old Testament
- Survey of the New Testament
- The Gospels
- Church History I (Acts – the third century)
- Church history II (3rd century –modern Age)
- Missions History and the Mission
